

USC Pacific Asia Museum

2021 LUNAR NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

Saturday, February 13, 2021 | 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Celebrate the Year of the Ox with USC PAM's virtual Lunar New Year festival!

Ways to watch:

 @USC_PAM  @PacificAsiaMuseum online at <http://pacificasiamuseum.usc.edu>

This program is presented in partnership with:

USC Roski

School of Art and Design

USC Visions & Voices

The Arts and Humanities Initiative

10:00 am

Lion Dance by Northern Shaolin Kung Fu Association

11:00 am

Artmaking Activity: Dragon Puppet with Quan Trang of Barnsdall Arts

12:00 pm

Storytime with Valentina Quezada

1:00 pm

Artmaking Activity: Year of the Ox Mask with Quan Trang of Barnsdall Arts

1:30 pm

Performance@PAM: Melody of China with The Music Center LA

Join us in exploring the music and unique, traditional instruments of China.

Instruments such as the ruan (moon guitar) are featured as the ensemble plays spirited music like "Oceans of Happiness," "Purple Bamboo Melody," and "Joyful Xin Jiang People."

2:30 pm

Cooking Demonstration with Chef Cecilia Leung

Although we are unable to celebrate with you in person, we're sharing a virtual feast for the eyes! Join L.A.-based chef Cecilia Leung as she teaches you how to craft delicious Lo Bak Go (turnip cake).

4:00 pm

Music by USC Thornton School of Music Student Elizabeth Wei

Elizabeth is a rising junior from Dallas, Texas, studying Classical Violin Performance at USC Thornton School of Music. We hope you enjoy her rendition of the Taiwanese folk song, "農耕歌" (Nónggēng Gē, Farming Song).

Special greetings from the PAMily throughout the day!